Otto Koch of Clinton County was nominated for State Senator and H. W. Shriner of Clay County and James H. Loy of Effingham County for Representative. These nominations were made by acclamation.

The district is over 2,000 Democratic and the only hopes the Republicans have is to elect one member of the House.

A resolution was passed, urging the voters to cast one and one-half votes each for Shriner and Loy, but this will hardly be carried out by the voters and it is expected that much plumping will be done by the friends of the two nominees. Colonie Randolph Smith of Flora presided at the convention.

MRS. MARGUERITE G. PRIMM DIES AT ADVANCED AGE.

Widow of Judge Wilson Primm and Member of Old St. Louis Family to Be Burled To-Morrow.

Mrs. Marguerite Guyon Primm, 88 years old, died yesterday at 5 a. m., at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Jacqueline Poepping, widow of Bernard Poepping, formerly Mayor of Carondelet, No. 213

Mrs. Primm's maiden name was Mar-guerite Guyon. She was the daughter of Vincent Guyon and Eulaile de Rohan Guyon, and was born near what is now the corner of Main and Pine streets in 1816.

Her grandfather, Amable Guyon, Jr., was the first white child born in this city, his parents having come up the Mississippi from New Orleans on the flatboat with Pierre Laclede, Auguste Chouteau, and others who first settled on the site of St.

others who first settled on the site of St. Louis.

In her youth, Mrs. Primm helped to sew the colored cloth in the windows of the old Cathedral on Walnut street. This took the place of stained glass in those days. She saw Lafayette when he came to St. Louis. She was married to Judge Wilson Primm in 1842.

From this union there survive three children, thirteen grandchildren, and sixteen great-grandchildren. Her surviving children are Mrs. Jacqueline Poepping, Mrs. Amelie Noel of Los Angeles, Cal., end Vincent B. Primm, who is connected with the Missouri Pacific Railroad in this city.

Mrs. Primm has always been a member of the Cathelic Church and the last sacrament was administered to her by Father P. P. Crane. rament was administered to her by Father P. P. Crane.

The funeral will take place to-morrow from the SS. Mary and Joseph's Church in Carondelet. Father M. W. Tobin will officiate. The pallbearers will be chosen from among Mrs. Primm's grandsons and great-grandsons.

Henry Meinhardt is reported missing from his home, No. 2007 South Third street. He is 65 years old, 6 feet tall and weighs 200 pounds.

Practically every house and home offers dozens of breeding places for the germs of typhold fever, dipatheria, smallpox, scarlet fever, consumption, grippe and scores of other contagious and infectious diseases. scores of other contagious and infectious diseases. Procure from the nearest dealer a small bottle of C-N, the safe, certain, household dininfectant and germicide. Use it in water for mopping the floors, scrubbing walls and woodwork, washing furniture and window seats, sprinkling carpets and uphoistery, spraying into corners, cellar, basement, stairways, closets and outbuildings. Flush the sinks, bath tubs, drain pipes and toilets.

This will utterly destroy every vestige of germ life or insects. Delays are dangerous, especially in this hot weather. Act at once.

WILL BUILD PAGODA FOR NATIONAL GRANGE MEMBERS.

Structure to Be Placed in Palace o Agriculture for Bendquarters of the Organization.

The National Grange is to have completely appointed headquarters in the Palace of Agriculture. At a meeting yesterday of President Francis, Director of Ex-hibits Frederick J. V. Skiff, Secretary Walter B. Stevens, Chief of the Department of Agriculture Frederic J. Taylor and K. H. Durkee, president of the Agri-cultural Club of the Palace of Agriculand K. H. Durkee, president of the Agricultural Club of the Palace of Agriculture, plans were agreed upon for the erection of a pagoda on block 2i, which will be fitted up for the accommodation of members of the National Grange and their families. Work will be begun at once, and by August 1 the headquarters will be ready. While the pagoda will serve primarily as a headquarters for the Grangers, an invitation is extended by them to the general public to visit the headquarters at any time.

The pagoda will be comfortable, and completely furnished with all conveniences. In the general reception-rooms will be chairs tables and other appointments. Stationery for the use of the members of the Grange will be furnished, and private retring rooms for the women will be fitted up. Couches and easy chairs will be in these rooms, and any of the vives and daughters may retire here for rest when fatigued. Accommodations for weary children will also be had. Any articles not desirable to carry around the grounds may also be left at the pagoda headquarters for safekeeping.

The National Grange officers will have complete charge of the headquarters, and from the first of August until the close of the Exposition members of the Grange and their families. The appointment of the custodians will be made by President Aaron Jones of the National Grange. E. B. Norfs. Chalman Jones of the State Grange of Missouri.

A feature of the headquarters that will he of great value and convenience to visit

Canton, Mo., president of the State Grange of Missouri.

A feature of the headquarters that will be of great value and convenience to visitors will be the pagoda bureau of information which will be maintained. Here a complete list of lodging-houses will be kept, and members of the Grange may ascertain by correspondence and otherwise where reasonable and convenient accommodations may be had and procure all other information regarding the World's Fair.
